Jean Slatter

Jean Slatter is the founder of Higher Guidance Life Coach Certification Program. She is an accomplished author and inspirational speaker is helping thousands to receive clarity direction and purpose to the direct access to Higher Guidance. Now in 2005 Jean published her landmark book Hiring the Heavens which introduced a unique perspective on connecting with the power of the heavens to fulfill your daily and life goals.

Hiring the Heavens is inspiring people all over the world to create their world in tandem with the workforce of the celestial realm. To create your world and tandem with the workforce of the celestial world. And we are gonna get into more what that means in just a little bit. Jean's topic today is gonna be Wield The Creative Power of the Universe; it's time learn how to hire from the heavens.

Turning to the Heavens

Jean:

Let me start out by saying that everyone can relate to a time when they were so down on their life, it felt as if every hope had abandoned them and the tears are flowing, they don't know where to turn. They feel like they are on their last leg and just in total desperation. Everyone has had a moment like that. And in that moment where do we turn? In that moment that's when we cry out to God and we ask Him some sort of help and relief.

And the question is this, why do we do that when we're in the moment of desperation like that? It's something that is almost instinctual in us that we try and try and try to work things out and when we can no longer do that at that point of desperation only then finally do we cry out for help.

What if we were wrong about that? What if we don't have to wait until that moment of desperation? What if that help is available to us 24/7 for even the turning of things in our life? That is what Hiring the Heavens is all about. What if we have this help available to us that even when we are happy -- this help can make us even happier? What if this power is available to us when we are healthy and we want to be even healthier? What if this power is available to us when we are financially well-off and we want to be even more financially well-off?

That is what Hiring the Heavens is all about. It's a perspective that teaches you that you don't have to wait till the time of crisis, you don't have to wait until you are completely down on your luck instead this is a relationship that you can develop and use to create as you said in the introduction in tandem with the heaven, life of your dreams. And it uses a simple little employment metaphor that you simply imagine that spiritual world is every bit as complex as our own physical plane and that every talent, skill, ability, and personality trait that exists in the physical plane exists also in the spiritual realm.

So whatever it is that you are doing imagine that you have an angel express card that you can use to hire from the heaven any talent and ability and skill that you wish and when you do that you begin to co-create in tandem the heavens. That's the long and short of it, right there.

John:

So did you have a personal moment that was pivotal... that was when you were reaching out, saying, "okay, I am desperate, I need this type of help" ?

Jean:

It was quite a long journey to get me to this point here and only with 20/20 hindsight when I look back and I understand why I went through this. But I spent the first twenty years of my life in a cult. I learned in those first twenty years what is like to totally give up your will and completely give up your ability to think and just to follow a dogma to the letter. I understood that and that's what I did.

When I left the church when I was 19, I swore off anything to do with religion and spirituality -- any thing to do with the word God, angels, all of that. I wanted nothing to do with it because at age 19 I found out that everything that I had believed in since I was a child was all a lie.

So in the next twenty years I wanted nothing to do with it and so, if someone talk to me about spirituality or the word angels or God it was, that was a total turn-off for me. So here it is now, almost 60 years later... and the last twenty years of my life has been this awakening to what is real. So up until age 40 I wanted nothing to do with God or angels and then I had a pivotal moment and that was my awakening to that something else beyond that. No you don't have to think of this as a giving up your free will and giving up your mind to a dogma instead there is something else that is going on.

So what happened for me is that I was in my business a traditional naturopath and I was doing some work with the client and the technique I was using was allergy clearing. Now on this allergy clearing I had to name five neurotransmitters to clear for my client and I had come up with four but could not think what that fifth neurotransmitter was. So I said to my client, "we have to reschedule, I need to do some research on neurotransmitters. Those are chemicals that your brain produces like Serotonin and Dopamine. Your body keeps telling you I need the name of five, I've only got four, so we need to reschedule."

Well the first words that fell out of my client's mouth after that is Histamine is neurotransmitter. I looked at her rather strange, I said, "No, histamine is not a neurotransmitter. Histamine is that stuff that your sinuses produce when you have an allergic reaction that's why you take an anti-histamine that's not a neurotransmitter." And then in that very next second, I turn around and I pulled a book off my shelf that I had purchase one year prior but had never opened. Well the book falls open to a page where the word histamine is in the title. So that is interesting and co-incidental and I laughed and I said "Look who's talking about histamine" and in the next millisecond something took my eyeballs and pointed them to a line buried in a paragraph. It's the only line I saw and it said, and I quote.. "Histamine is also thought to be a neurotransmitter.."

That was my pivotal moment. You know, here I had spent the twenty years previous to that not wanting to know about spirituality and God, and you know.. And just shutting anything to do with it. And then I have an experience like that where you cannot explain it with coincidence. It's something else...from another dimension. Something had to whisper it to my client and make my client say it. And when I said, 'no, that's not it' then something had make me turn around, pull a book of the shelf that I'd never opened in the years since I bought it, and it opens to the page and takes my eyes right to that line. Okay, that was a little bit freaky and I sat there just like goose bumps all over me, thinking I don't even have words to explain what just happened.

So in my mind I tried to figure out what was going on and the only thing that I could come up with is that I had a spiritual physician working with me. Here I was, traditional naturopath and I thought, I was doing a good thing and helping people, so maybe this unseen dimension wants to assist me with my work. So I imagine that spiritual physician was guiding me with my clients from that day forward. In fact, I began to have staff meetings in my car as I was heading to my office so I would talk to my spiritual physician and tell him, 'Okay, here are the different clients that we have coming in today can you help with this person that got heart issues and can you help me with that person there, there's issues with diabetes, just give me some information.'

And as I call upon the spiritual physician the words would be coming to my mouth that I knew weren't my own. I would just be guided to say something crazy like tell me what's going on with your husband. Why would I even say that? But the words would come out or a remedy that maybe I hadn't even heard of or known would be helpful for a particular client.

So I was beginning to get help from this spiritual physician then I had a crazy thought. If I got a spiritual physician helping me with my business perhaps I can get help with other aspects of my work and I could hire a spiritual secretary and a spiritual marketer and a spiritual financial consultant and spiritual financial advisor.

I imagined hiring all of these physicians on a spiritual level and as soon as I did that it worked so well that I was able to work for the next ten years and have my husband stay home with our four kids and I supported them working part time in my business and never had to hire anyone on the physical plane because it was all taken care of for me on the spiritual level.

That's how it works.

Earning The Love You Get

John:

You're getting all this information, but you don't stop it, you don't pretend to be the guru. You actually take this information and you teach other people how to get that same access.

Jean:

Well, I didn't start out to do this. This was something that was just brought to my awareness to that extraordinary pivotal moment, but I didn't think of it as me creating a relationship with God and with the angels. Instead I was just having fun. I'm watching how my heavenly staff is working for me for my business and taking care of my phone calls and booking my client and you know all sorts of things. Whatever I asked for, I received.

And the next thing I did is thought, whoah this is working so well for my business is it possible that they would be interested in helping me with something that is "selfish." Now this was a real stretch for me because I thought the only reason I was getting help in the beginning was because I was doing a good thing helping clients in my naturopathic business. I thought the reason why I was getting help is because I'm doing a good thing.

John:

Oh Jean, I love that.. I wanna rephrase that because what is coming up for me is "earning the love that you get," right?

Jean:

Yes! Yes! We have to justify it.

This was probably the biggest epiphany that I got from working with this process. I thought the only reason that this was working and again it's a justification is because I was helping people. Then I thought could they help me for just me -- like I need help clothes shopping and I need help finding the perfect hair color. Is it possible that I could call upon this immense power to help me for something that is purely just for me. So I thought I'd give it a try.

And one of the first things I did, was hire a spiritual wardrobe consultant to go shopping with me. It still amazes me. I don't ever shop now without a wardrobe consultant, a spiritual wardrobe consultant. I use to be somebody that hated to shop. I can never find what I want and it will always be the wrong color, the wrong size, etc. I'm almost kind of scared to do it.

I'm driving down the road I say okay I'm hiring the spiritual wardrobe consultant. Please help me find clothes that are at a good price that I fall in love with and let's just make a very very productive afternoon I bought 17 outfits that day for just over $200.

I realized that heaven was there for me for any reason no matter how silly, trivial or selfish. The heavens are there for me no matter what. Then I started asking for everything.

So you can see, I just hired away from the heavens for everything. It begins to keep you in touch with who you really are. Because eventually you have to ask the question, 'Who am I that the Heavens would want to help me? Here I am getting this extraordinary help from the Heavens; what makes me so important that they would be interested in me?'

And when you ask that question then the wheel starts turning and that brings up all that worthiness stuff you start looking at that and then you come around to the epiphany of who you truly are. And you understand just you said that this is something that is given to you as a gift there's nothing you have to do to earn it, there is nothing you have that you can do that would take it away from you it is yours because you exist because of who you are which is that got energy.

John:
You're loved

Jean:
That is exactly right, and there is nothing you can do to earn that and nothing you can do to have it taken away it's given to you period. Because you exist.

Help Through Inspiration and People

John:

Okay Jean, are you telling me that it works by hiring specialists from the heavens to those energies? Is there more to it?

Jean:

Yes, my experience is that there are specialists in all areas. If you want somebody that is funny, there is an angel of humor, a funny angel that will inspire you to be funny. If you want somebody that is a specialist in cabinetry, there is an angelic specialist that is fabulous at cabinetry.

John:

So we understand that there is help, but how do we start integrating the messages and the help -- because often our ego gets in the way or we get false messages from other places because of all the chaos. How do you learn to trust the real guidance versus the noise that's out there?

Jean:

Well, for me, I would talk to my spiritual hires every single day. I still do when I wake in the morning and some of the and wake up saying 'good morning angels.' It's a conversation going throughout the day and that's what creates the trust as you begin to play with it. Now, I reiterate that its a playful type of the experience not something boring out of desperation, but one born out of play. And as you begin to play with it and work with it then that relationship begins to deepen and pretty soon things start happening in a way that there's no doubt in your mind that you that you really are getting help.

I will say that there are three things that begin to happen when you hire from the heavens the first thing that can happen is that you can be inspired with the information you need. I remember one time I was working on my laptop and it was just hosed up -- I couldn't get anything to happen and I was at the point of saying 'Okay I'm gonna have to shut this computer down' and then I just took a deep breath hired a spiritual computer specialist. I said 'guide me, tell me what I need to do' and with my eyes closed I took my index finger up and I put it down on the keyboard and then everything worked. I have no idea what I did but it all worked.

So you can be inspired with the information that you need the second thing that can happen. The heavens will bring to your doorstep the embodiment, the physical person, that you need to help you with whatever it that is you're doing. When I was told by my spiritual guidance, 'Alright, we want you to write a book about hiring from the heavens,' I said, 'Okay, well then I'm hiring a spiritual book writing committee to help me. Bring me somebody who will help me start pulling this off.' And soon as I did that I had a message on my recorder she said 'Hi, my name is _____ and I'm a developmental editor and I was just wondering if you have any book projects that you are working on..

I'm not kidding you could push me over with a feather I asked the committee to bring me somebody to help me develop these ideas and a perfect stranger calls me and asked me if I have any book projects that I was working on. Crazy!

Q & A

John:

Mary, Thank you for calling. What's your question for Jean today?

Mary:

Oh I don't know cause I didn't think I was gonna had call so I didn't ask, I can come up with a question. Jean, from you heart, I mean your intuition.. Is there something that you can tell me that perhaps I can seeking to know?

Jean:

You know, I was picking up on that, that you were saying when you say that you didnt have a question but the message that I've got for you was that you need to create or to culture this relationship with the divine. That even though you are spiritual this needs to be part of your everyday life and welcome that in as, as if there are standing right beside you throughout your day and invite them in for every aspect of your life.

Mary:

Thank you, cause just last night I was thinking I put the angels on the pedestal. And here you said exactly...

Jean:

That was exactly what I was hearing so that's great confirmation for you. Let me tell you something, I have to tell you this story. Because we do, we tend to put not only God but the angels up on this pedestal. I heard from a lady who is CareVoyant and she had been working angels. She was very young could see them and they were part of her life but she did the same thing -- even though she could see them she used them only for big ticket items.

Jean:

That was it, so after we reading my book she said oh my gosh I've been missing out here.. So that night she wrote out committee page after committee page -- she put her romance committee together for she and her husband. She has a work committee for the work she was doing. She has a family committee for her kids. She had a health committee, a fitness committee, she left no stone unturned. The next morning when she woke up and again because she is CareVoyant and could see when she opened her eyes she said, 'Jean I could not believe what I was seeing. They were everywhere; they were so much commotion going on and there were even some coming up to me that I hadn't hired and they were showing me a resume they said we heard you were hiring.

John:

Someone wrote a question, Julia from Japan. She said that she's been connecting with one of our spirit guides successfully for a couple of months but she feels the need for tips and pointers how she can use her team better in her daily life and how she can work with them to bring forth what the divine wants to express through her. Any suggestions on that?

Jean:

The tip that she needs is to trust herself more. It isn't about tuning in to her guides and her guides talking to her -- it's about her being able to trust herself more. She is not trusting herself or what she knows to be true. Instead she is giving that over to her guides and saying 'you tell me.'

That often happens especially when it comes to understanding our purpose and what is that we are here to do often times we give up and were taught to give up our will to the heavens, but the truth of it is the heavens is asking what do you wanna do.

I have four kids so when they were little occasionally they will come up to me and say Mama I'm bored. And so then I will come up with ideas of what they could do, I see your bored so why don't you go and to this why don't you go do that and of course you know what they'd all say everytime no I don't wanna do that. Eventually I have to say 'okay I'm out of ideas, what do you want to do?'

Well, that's the way it is when we are expressing ourselves and coming to know who we truly are. We look to heavens and say, 'tell me what I need to do... what I should be doing,' and the heavens are looking back at us and saying, 'tell us what you wanna do, and as soon as you tell us then we'll go to work for you.'

And so the tip for her is to trust herself more and be more decisive. Grab onto something and go for it, and when she goes for it she can hire the heavens to support her but she has to make that decision first.

The Heavens In Depth

John:

That powerful. Jean, I would love to share this special offer that you have for Beyond The Ordinary because I want everyone to know that there is a way to really go in deeper in to this information. You can go to:

www.beyondtheordinaryshow.com/jean5

Jean could you leave us through what you put together for us?

Jean:

I am so excited about this because this is a brand new package. I had my assistant out it together in video form so that there is actually something visual as well as audio which I think it will really helps in a learning process.

The first video is hiring the heavens in depth. And this goes into far more detail than a phone interview and explains exactly how all this works with tips and ideas -- because one of the things that is so interesting about all this is when people say to me, 'Oh I don't know who I would hire for this or for that.' And I say to them, 'just go into your imagination.'

Some of the things that people have come back with are so imaginative but we don't we are not use to using our imagination that way so as you listen to the call you'll get inspired with all sorts of ideas and ways that you can put committees together by the end of it you're gonna be feeling like the world is your oyster there isn't anything that you can't hire the heavens for.

The next video is beyond the law of attraction. Now this is something that was a real surprise to me. When I was writing Hiring The Heavens, I thought that it was working by the law of attraction but I was wrong it's not working by the law of attraction -- its working by the law of grace. In fact my guidance told me that everything is a trinity when it comes to manifesting and there are never less than 3 laws in effect simultaneously. And those 3 laws are the Law of Consequence, The Law of Attraction and The Law of Grace. And so in this video you'll learn all about the trinity and how it is that we truly manifest and why it is that the law of attraction at times leaves us in total frustration and you come to understand the 3 laws and how they work.

The 3rd video is hired by the heavens. You see not only can we hire from the heavens but its a two way street there is something that the heavens wants to hire us for -- that we are uniquely qualified to do. So in this video, you will learn what's on your soul's resume, what your gifts of spirit are, how to negotiate your contract, and how to fulfill your soul's mission.

So those are the three videos plus I have an audio MP3 on your financial workforce that is just awesome. I listened to it again myself and its so good. This goes into how to put together a specific financial committee to help you out. I know that there are many people struggling financially so this is very helpful. But it goes beyond that. And it even goes into the what I call the four cornerstones of creation.

You also get an e-book on putting your committees together.
